East Ascension High School
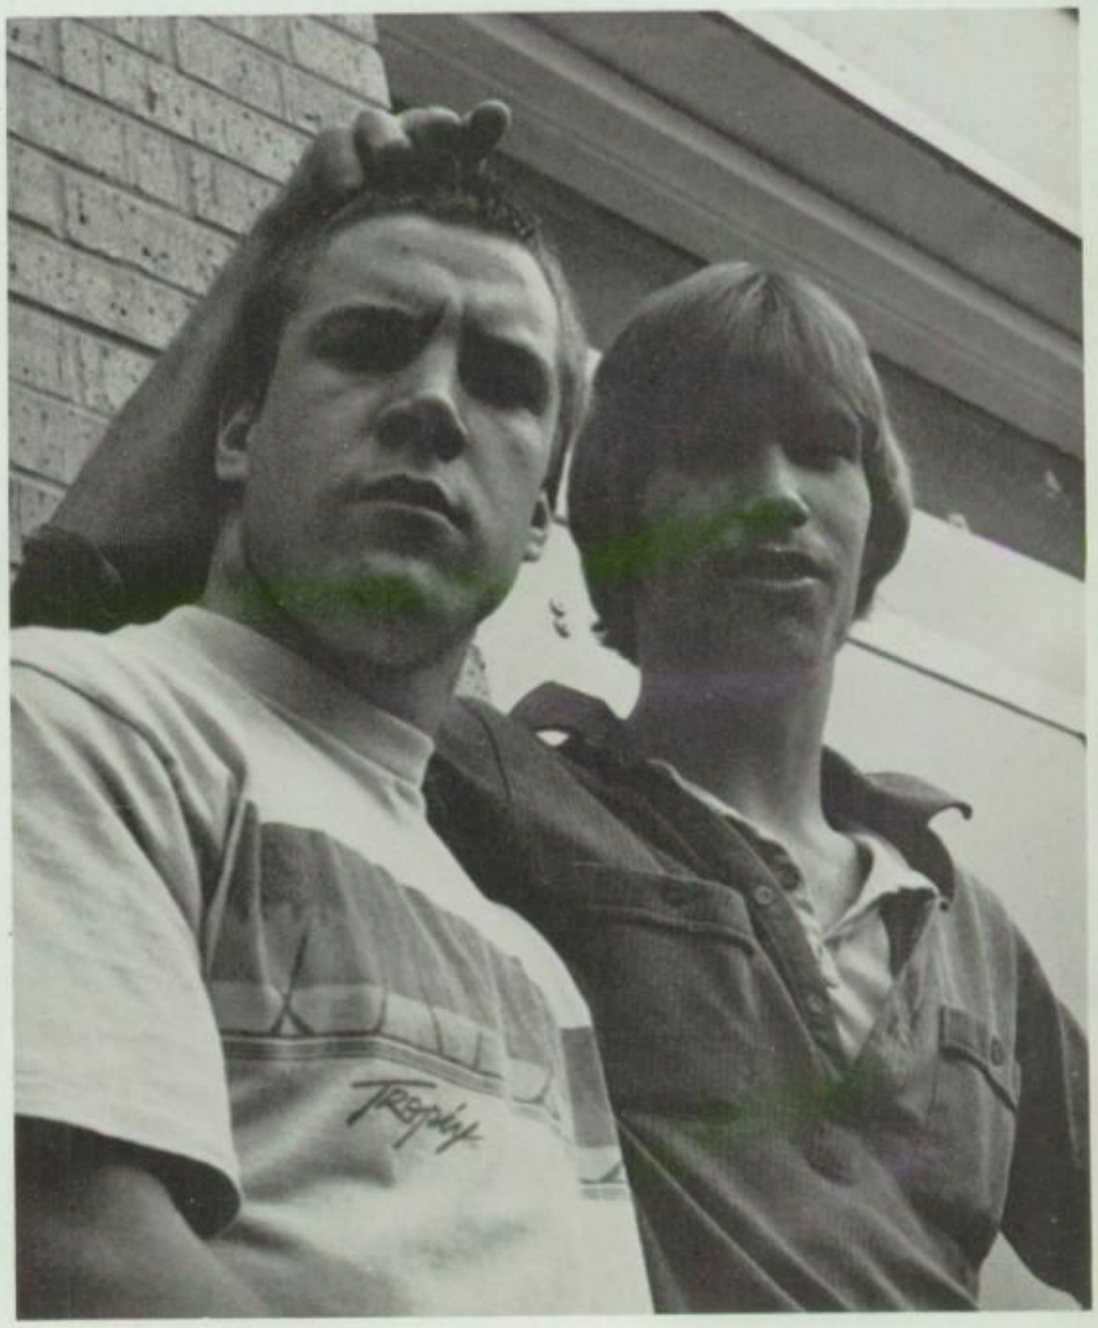
Worthy Rd.
Gonzales, LA.

EAHS



Getting Involved at EA

As well as a broad curriculum, East Ascension offers students a chance to pursue their individual interests. Students can be a part of many clubs: band, choir, Beta Club, Mu Alpha Theta, Key Club, FFA, and many other organizations.

Students can enroll in different electives to further pursue their interests and broaden their knowledge. Classes are offered in speech, photography, agriculture, psychology, and industrial arts.

Paul Melancon and Robyn Varner chat in the courtyard. Rose Hooper, Tracie White, Becky Waguespack, Marcy Owens, and Lisa Naul show off their Punk Day attire. Michelle Rachal, Jill LeBlanc, Tara Latiolais, and Daphne Hebert gaze down from the balcony. Stacy Laiche, Gwen Elisar, Shannon Sanchez, and Paige Pertuit pose in the mall. Rhett King and Brittany Ferrell share a joke. Tasha Broussard expresses her feelings about the hot September heat in the courtyard.

Students Use Free Time to Socialize

Special friendships that begin at school often last a lifetime. For one hour a day, students at EA have the chance to relax with friends, to take a break from six hours of classes. At lunch they often congregate in the courtyard to relax and enjoy the sun, or sit in the mall with their friends. Lunch time offers students a chance to share stories and experiences, to finish homework, or study for a test.

Lunch is the perfect time to sit with friends, and even make new friends. The chance to share experiences and ideas helps us here at EA to get along with each other and keep friendships alive. It is a time to begin a friendship that will last forever.

We Have The Spartan Spirit

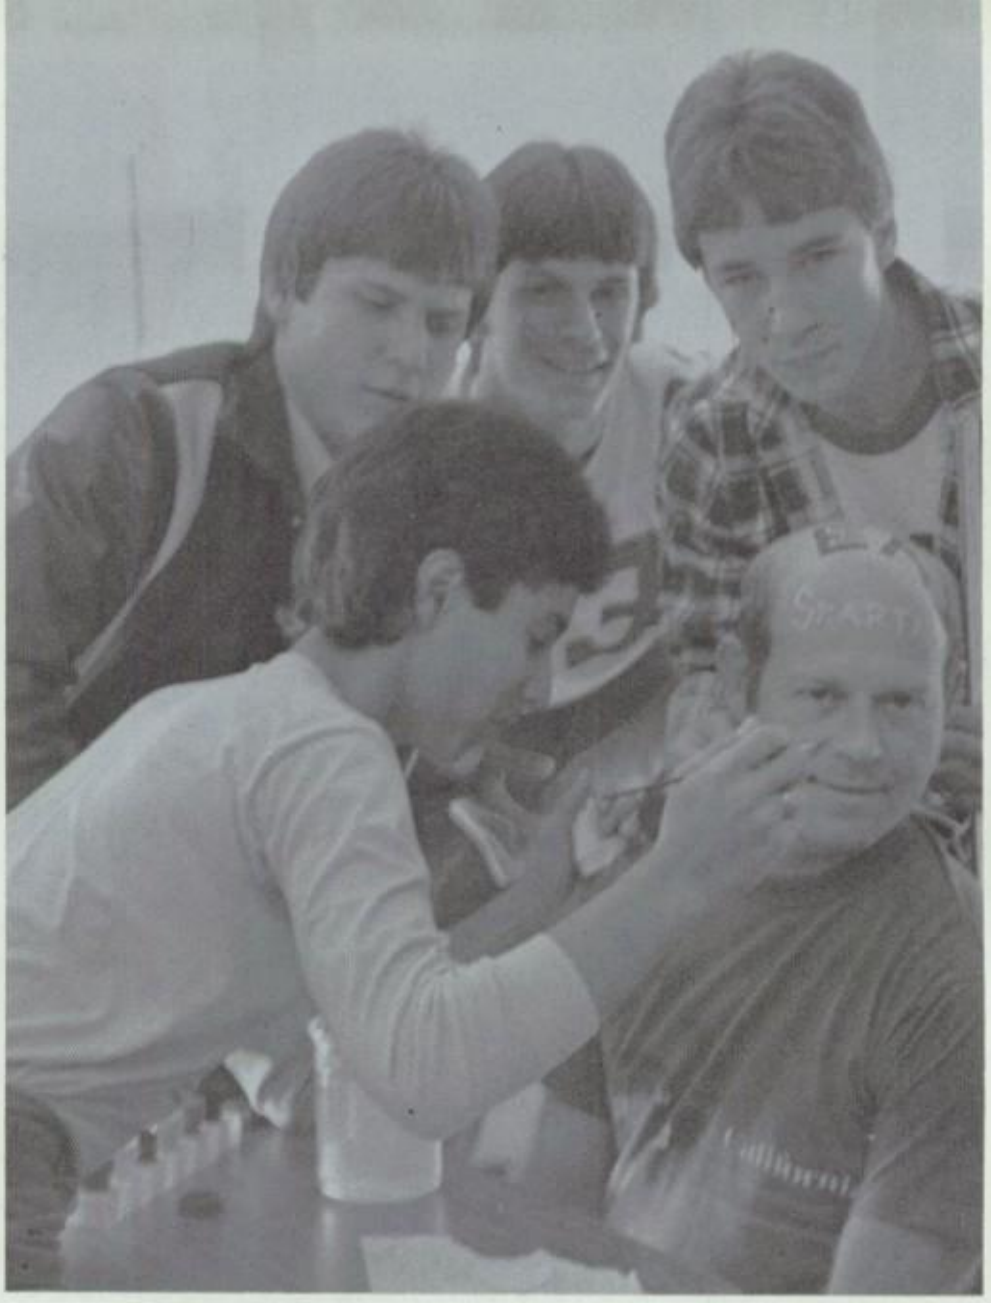
Come Along and Catch It

Dressing up, shaving heads and excitement are all a part of the Spartan spirit. Even the teachers and coaches get caught up in all the fun.

Pep rallies are the high point of every Friday during football season. Each pep rally is given a special theme. Students follow the theme by dressing up in outfits to fit the day. This year we had such themes as Hick Day, Hat Day, Punk Day, and Backwards Day.

Everyone gets into the spirit, including the Leblanc special children, who attended a pep rally and sat with the football players. Like many football players, C.J. Kling shaved his head in hopes of inspiring good luck.

Student participation during the pep rallies was extra ordinary. Denise Lambert and Vickie Madere participated in Hick Day by dressing country. Kristin Anderson dressed in her army fatigues to go on a gator hunt. The teachers and coaches got into the spirit this year. Mr. Braud painted his head with the help of Richard Hutto, Tim Poche, Kevin Babin, and Stefan Speligene. While Coach Raley and Coach Little went Lion hunting during the Capital pep rally. The spirit and excitement of an E.A. pep rally is great. If you haven't had a chance to attend one of our pep rallies, you are missing out on some real fun. It is an experience worth remembering because when you catch the Spartan Fever, you enjoy it.



Yes, We Also Do Schoolwork

East Ascension puts much emphasis on the classroom and the achievement of high scores through schoolwork. Many of the students compete in quiz bowls, rallies and many other scholastic competitions. Along with the work comes lots of fun. The participation of students in both the classroom and extracurricular activities is outstanding. It is through schoolwork we achieve and through achievements we become what we are.

October 28, 1983, was a day brimming with excitement. Students and teachers busily prepared for the festivities which climaxed on homecoming day. The pep rally was particularly exciting, as Shelly Lanoux was crowned EA's 1983 homecoming queen. But the fun did not end at the pep rally. School dismissed at 12 and students rushed to decorate their cars. People crowded the streets to watch the annual homecoming parade, which featured the members of the homecoming court riding atop sports cars. Many students rode in decorated trucks, cars, and three-wheelers for the parade.

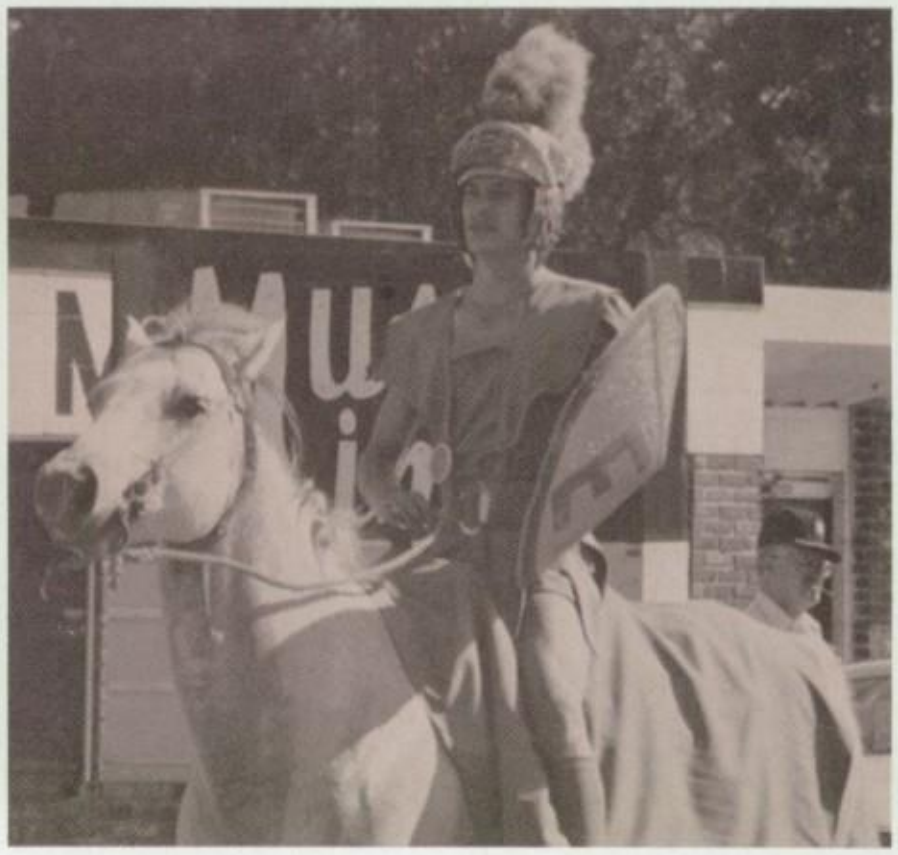
Day's Fun Extends Into Night

EA Homecoming Day Heralds Excitement



EA Homecoming Salutes All-American Beauties

East Ascension's annual homecoming pep rally was held October 23, 1983. Shelly Lanoux, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lanoux, was crowned queen of the homecoming festivities by Becky Wright, East Ascension's 1982 homecoming queen. That night at the game, the homecoming court was presented to the fans during the half-time show, a spectacular salute to America. The Spartans beat the Istrouma Indians 17-0 to cap off the week's festivities.

Pep Rallies Show Students' Spirit, Loyalty to School

East Ascension's pep rallies are always something to remember. During football season, Fridays are filled with excitement. Students cheer wildly in the bleachers, yelling proudly for their favorite football team, the Spartans. Classes always compete against each other for the coveted spirit stick, or yell in unison to show the football team that the student body supports them all the way.

Afterwards, the spirit is carried on in the mall, and down the halls are the echoes of, "Go, Big Blue."

Teachers have a hard time calming students down after a morning of cheering, but no one really seems to mind the confusion pep rallies create.

Counselor Retires

Mrs. Mary Shirley, who has been at East Ascension since it began, will retire this year. She taught school for 15 years and counseled for the past eight years. Her future plans are to have time to cook and to travel. She will continue, however, to be a Spartan fan.

Mrs. Shirley loves the students of East Ascension and says she will miss helping people. Students and faculty will also miss her.

Industrial Arts Receives Top Honors

East Ascension's Industrial Arts Club has a lot to be proud of. As well as being recognized as the top club in the state for 6 of the last 8 years, including the last 4 years in a row. Last year they were honored as the top club in the nation.

This year's state convention brought many awards to the club. Their scrapbook captured first place, while Tracy Owens won the office of state parliamentarian. Mr. C. Backes received the honor of outstanding state sponsor, and the quiz bowl team garnered first place in the state.

As well as excelling at convention, the EA Industrial Arts Club kept busy locally, sponsoring a Christmas for LeBlanc Special School students, collecting canned goods for Christmas and Thanksgiving, as well as sponsoring their own school arts and crafts fair.

Cartoon Capers

Cartoon Capers, the beautifully decorated theme of the 1983-84 Junior-Senior prom, was decided upon by the junior class officers. The prom committee decorated the gym with many colorful balloons, wooden cartoon characters and scenes of cartoon characters stating things about the prom. The very original theme was illustrated with pages of cartoons from the newspaper strung above the crowd. James Schexnaydre aided by Becky Wright was selected to draw caricatures of the people who attended the prom. The out-of-state band who played for the prom was Nick-1-Beer.

Sophs Get Involved

How does it feel to be no longer the new person at school, but, at the same time, not a junior, getting ready to receive your ring? And not a senior preparing for graduation. Even though all of this applies to the sophomores at East Ascension, it does not mean that they are not as important as everyone else. These students, just like the others, get involved with many school activities. They are included in all of the clubs and they fit in.

As you walk through the halls and look into the classrooms, you see them full of sophomores. During lunch-shift, they are eating lunch or clowning around with their friends in the mall or the courtyard. Sophomores can often be seen talking and gathering closely with their friends. Jeanine Banker and Chetta Glaze, right top, are two sophomores who show their less serious side. These students are also involved in the publishing of the Spartan Lance. Over half of the Lance staff, bottom right, are in the tenth grade. These students help to make the newspaper possible.

So, as you can see, sophomores are a very important part of East Ascension. They help to make the school complete. And if you are a sophomore, do not worry, we know you are just as important as everyone else.

The Gate To The Future

Any new experience can lead a person on a road of doubt. You don't stand alone! Everyone around has the same feelings and mixed emotions.

The first day attending high school can seem like a cold plunge. Leaving the security of elementary school is hard for many to do.

While crossing through the school gates, all of the nightmares that freshmen have imagined during the past week flood their minds. That first day nervous young students walk around with sweaty schedules in their hands. Some experience the fear of not being accepted by upperclassmen. Teachers say it is time for you to grow up.

Everyone looks forward to meeting new people and especially seeing the familiar faces. There is some comfort knowing others are going through the exact same thing.

The 1983-1984 freshman students have expressed their feelings in the following quotes:
Nicole Braud: "It took me two to three weeks to realize the whole school was a rectangle."
Rhett Cruthirds "I thought it would be strict, but you get a lot of freedom."
Penny Delmore "E.A. is #1"
Lisa Kolb "A place where people feel at home and can be themselves."
Mable Grace Paulino "This was one scared freshman."
Heston Raven "I am glad I came to this wonderful school, Amen."
Donna Reeves "Everyone was kind and nobody picked on me, except my brothers."
Stephanie Waguespack "The people are friendly and the atmosphere is great!"
Catherine Williams "I made friends and I began to look forward to the years ahead."
Jeff Womack "E.A.'s first impression on me was expecting the unexpected."

Our school will hold the future, and the dreams for all students that walk through the halls. Although the freshman feel anxiety they get over it in a couple of weeks. They all enjoy looking forward to the next four years with all the exciting days and memories they hold.

HARD-HITTING SPARTANS

The 1983 East Ascension Spartans opened their season on a sour note. The East St. John Wildcats defeated the Spartans 12-7 at the Jambalaya Jamboree. The next week, E.A. faced a strong Lutcher team. The Spartans jumped out to an early 9-point lead, but a couple of costly turnovers gave Lutcher the lead going in at halftime. In the second half, the Bulldogs continued to hold the Spartan offense at bay, while the defense could not contain the elusive Lutcher backs. Lutcher won 26-9.

The Baker Buffaloes then traveled to Gonzales to take on a fired-up Spartan team. Though the Buffs were heavily favored, E.A. played a flawless game and came away with a 14-9 win, to keep the Mayor's Trophy for a second consecutive year. The Spartans displayed tough defense and ball-control offense to subdue the Buffaloes.

Plaquemine was E.A.'s first away game. It was also a very big win. Before the night was over, the Spartans had coasted to a 20-0 victory. E.A.'s defense played an awesome game, holding the Green Devils on a fourth-an-inches at the goal line.

East Ascension opened its district play at home with a 27-7 loss to the powerful Capital Lions. Again, costly turnovers deep in their own territory caused E.A.'s demise.

The McKinley Panthers were the Spartans' next foe. E.A. totally dominated the undermanned Panthers. The Spartan offense produced six scores on their way to a 48-6 blowout.

East Ascension took another district tumble with a 21-14 loss to the Rebels of Lee High. The first half showed a close game, but an interception return for a touchdown gave Lee momentum. The Spartans scored on the last play of the game, but it wasn't enough to overcome the defecit.

The Spartans then traveled to Olympia Stadium to face the Broadmoor Buccaneers. E.A. had defeated the Bucs the previous two years to take consecutive district crowns, but Broadmoor came through with an interception late in the game to preserve their lead. Broadmoor won 20-13.

If you were looking for offense at the E.A.-Tara game, it was nowhere to be found. What was there, was outstanding defense. The Spartans scored on a field goal late in the third quarter and held the Trojans' offense the rest of the way to post a 3-0 triumph.

The Spartans' last home game of the season was a 17-0 shutout of the Istrouma Indians. The Spartans delighted the Homecoming crowd with sticky defense and precision offense. It was E.A.'s second shutout in two games and it set the stage for the last game of the season against the playoff-bound St. Amant Gators.

The East Ascension Spartans ended their see-saw season with a wet 33-6 trouncing of the district runner-up Gators. Against the mighty Spartan defense, St. Amant produced minus (-) ten yards total offense and only one first down. The Spartan offense racked up 376 total yards on the sloppy turf. St. Amant scored on a blocked punt return for a touchdown in the first quarter but the Spartans' "7 diamond" defense dominated the rest of the game. The senior football players dedicated the game to the kids of the LeBlanc Special School. It was one of the biggest wins in E.A.'s 17-year history. The Spartans ended their season with a 6-4 record overall and a 4-3 district mark.

Spartans Sail Into Playoffs with a record-setting season

The East Ascension basketball team opened its record-setting season with wins over Port Allen and Belaire. The Spartans lost to Broadmoor in the second round of the Redemptorist Tourney and then ran off a string of 24 straight wins. E.A. beat Lutcher 60-35, John Ehret 70-38, Denham Springs 54-32, and St. James 43-40 to capture the Spartan Classic title.

The Spartan roundballers then faced an unbeaten Terrebonne team and came away with a 68-49 win. E.A. continued its winning ways with a district-opening victory over the Capitol Lions, 75-66. In the next two games, the Spartans displayed their swarming defense to post wins over McKinley and Lee.

Undefeated Broadmoor then traveled to Gonzales to face the Spartans. The game was an offensive battle throughout, with both teams exchanging the lead many times. Riding on the hot hand of Super-Soph Fess Irvin and the defense of Robert Reddix and Durwin Jackson, the Spartans outscored the Bucs 59-56.

East Ascension continued its cakewalk through district with convincing wins over Tara and Istrouma.

The last game of the first round pitted cross-town rival St. Amant against the district-leading Spartans. E.A. took charge early in the game and held off a late charge by the Gators to post a 67-61 win. E.A. ended the first round of district undefeated and faced a tough second round.

After an opening win over Capitol, E.A. barely escaped with a victory over McKinley 74-72 in overtime. The Spartans returned home to defeat the Rebels of Lee High.

Another showdown with Broadmoor took place, but it was the Spartans that came up short, 61-67. This was E.A.'s second loss of the season and it snapped their 24-game winning streak. The Tara Trojans were the Spartans' next victims in a 65-56 trouncing. E.A. then defeated Istrouma, 57-41, to secure the 6-AAAA crown. The last regular season game was a disappointing 56-62 loss to St. Amant.

The district champion Spartans were invited to participate in the "Super Six" at L.S.U. This was a chance for many people to see the top six teams in the state play each other. E.A. faced White Castle and defeated them soundly 44-31 without the use of their leading scorer, Fess Irvin, who was hurt in the St. Amant game.

E.A. traveled to the Assembly Center once more to face New Iberia in the first round of the playoffs. E.A. used relentless defense to trip up the taller Yellow Jackets, 67-52.

The Spartans then traveled to Monroe to play a strong Neville team. E.A. played a close game throughout and even took a 10-point lead, but the Tigers used precision jump shots to subdue the Spartans, 55-62.

East Ascension ended its season with a 30-4 record and a 12-2 district mark. The Spartans were led by Sophomore Fess Irvin with a 24 pts/game average. He had highs of 40 against Rapides and 37 against Broadmoor. Senior Robert Reddix led the rebounding department with 182 overall and a 5.8 per game average. He also blocked 20 shots and shot a sizzling 62.8% from the field. Jr. Durwin Jackson was tops in steals with 72 while Senior Chuck Shive hit 79% of his freethrows.

Durwin Jackson leaps over a Panther for an easy two.

It was a very good year

ALMA MATER

In the sixth year of the sixties
East Ascension High began anew.
Proudly waves its unfurled banner,
Rich in yellow and in royal blue.
How the memories seem to linger,
Priceless as the sun-lit morning's dew.
Let's all hail the mighty Spartan,
Emblem of a school so dear and true.
Though the years stretch ever onward,
Our Alma Mater, we love you.
